SHOOTING AFFRAY ON MAUNA KEA STREET

Two Chinese Engage in Row and One Draws Gun and Fires on the Other — Injured Man Had Narrow Escape.

There was a shooting affray on Mauna Kea street this morning at about 10 o'clock that may possibly have a serious ending. It appears that two Chinese were having an argument about some matter, and, after a while, the men becoming excited, engaged in a scuffle.

The man who got the worse of the mix-up, after getting clear of his fellow countryman, is alleged to have rushed to a back room and grabbed a revolver with which he fired point-blank at the other Chinese, Ah Poo, who had his back turned to his assailant.

The shot struck the unfortunate man in the inside of the leg and the bullet hit the wall of the room. Dr. Herbert, who attended the wounded man, says that the man had a very narrow escape from death. Chief Leal is out after the man who fired the shot and expects to have him in custody within a short time.

BROOM FIGHT ON RIVERSIDE STREET

While the street cleaners were at work on King street, near Aala, this morning, two Chinese named Pang Peck and Wang Kawai drew up their wagon alongside the sidewalk.

Sam Silva, who wished to sweep up the street, very politely requested the Celestials to move on. That started the trouble and within two minutes the usual crowd had gathered around an a really lively contest was being fought out.

Samuel did his best, but superior numbers bore him back; street brooms were used with deadly effect and the representative of Portugal had to beat a retreat.

However, the police department is taking a hand in the matter, and tomorrow morning the whole matter will be threshed out before Judge Andrade.

Col. W. M. Ridpath, high in the councils of the Grand Army of the Republic and but recently the commander of that organization in Washington and Alaska, is a through passenger by the Mongolia. He will proceed to Hongkong and may visit the Philippines. Col. Ridpath is a brother of the great American historian bearing the same name. He is accompanied by Judge C. B. Dunning, a prominent jurist of Spokane, Wash. They are on a year's tour of the world.

BENCH WARRANTS FOR WITNESSES

There were two witnesses missing this morning in the trial of Kawakami and Fushino, charged with imprisoning a Japanese named Hata during the late strike because it was discovered that he did not agree with some of the plans of the Higher Wage Association leaders. Uyeno and Enguchi were the men who regarded the subpoenas lightly and bench warrants were issued for their apprehension and they were brought into court for explanations.

The two defendants in the case are charged with illegally restraining Hata of his liberty for a space of thirty minutes.

STOCKS

Monday was rather quiet as usual on the Stock Exchange. Oahu and Ewa sold at slightly reduced prices on the Board but Pioneer advanced. Quite a lot of Honolulu sold between boards at 18.50.

The week opens with good promise of activity in the so-called smaller stocks and the old reliables will continue to hold their strong position.

THERE IS considerable coal soon to leave Atlantic coast ports or already on the way to Honolulu, intended for the United States naval station. According to advices received here the British freighter, Falls of Orchy will bring in the neighborhood of six thousand tons, which will be taken on at Atlantic Range. From Newport News three vessels have been fixed including the American steamer Wilhelmina, the British freighter Dunedin and the American ship Edward Sewall. The latter vessel has made a number of trips between Atlantic coast ports and the Hawaiian Islands. She represents one of the last of many crack sailing ships which formerly carried the American flag to the utmost corners of the inhabited globe. Three British tramp steamers, the Romera, Kilchattan and Earl of Elgin have been placed on the berth at Norfolk, Va.; the Romera having sailed from that port for Honolulu 37 days ago.
